Coming soon! “Alps Gym,” the Gigantic Athletic Facility is on the way to Shiga Agricultural Park Blume-no-oka

Farm Co., Ltd. (Head office: Saijo city, Ehime, President: Yuji Takai), one of our consolidated subsidiaries, will start operating Alps Gym, one of the largest athletic facilities in western Japan, within the premises of Shiga Agricultural Park “Blumen Hugel Farm (Blume-no-oka).” Blumen Hugel Farm—a theme park inspired by farming villages in the Bavarian region of Germany—is located at Hino-cho, Gamo-gun, Shiga Prefecture and operated by Farm, Co., Ltd.

A climbing attraction with fully original and stylish design where up to 92 people can play at the same time
GRAND OPENING on March 1, 2019

Designed in harmony with nature, three-layered and 17-meter-tall Alps Gym is one of the largest athletic facilities in western Japan. After finishing fabrication of parts in Germany, German craftspeople will come all the way to Japan and start constructing the attraction in Blumen Hugel Farm in December this year.

The attraction features 72 stations and lookouts including a fully equipped bouldering wall, a bicycle ride log bridge, and an amusing resting spot. Everyone from children to adults never get bored. The attraction has no fixed route; visitors can start climbing from any station they like. Up to 92 people can enjoy the attraction at the same time.
